

Our original logo for the Cabo Wabo Cantina in Cabo San Lucas, Mexico features a lighthouse to represent the location's origin. 'Cabo' translates to 'Cape' in English, and every Cape has a lighthouse to guide a ship's way - in Cabo San Lucas, it warns of the iconic rock formation known as "Land's End."

In 1990, I opened the original Cabo Wabo Cantina in the small sleepy fishing village of Cabo San Lucas, Mexico. Known as "the club that Sammy and Van Halen built," it's been named one of the top ten party spots in the world and is home to my annual birthday bash. But here at the Waterfront Resort, this is Sammy Hagar's Cabo Wabo Beach Club - and it's no cantina. Nestled within the hotel we have our own pool, indoor and outdoor dining areas and a palapa bar overlooking the Pacific Ocean - you can even walk to the beach! Our cuisine is inspired by our origins but revamped for the resort customer. And the best part is the fact that there are 437 rooms in this beautiful hotel - so you can pretty much say you're "staying at the Cabo Wabo!" I'm glad you're here to eat, drink, stay and play with us and enjoy a new Cabo Wabo vibe in Huntington Beach, CA. We still soak up the sun, sip margaritas and enjoy life - with just a little more chill.

A handwritten signature in black ink, which appears to be "Sammy Hagar", is located at the bottom of the page. The signature is stylized and fluid, with a large loop at the beginning and a long, sweeping tail.
